Mr. Horn is a Painter by profession, and invites public attention to his style of painting Photographs. These pictures EXCEL THE FINEST PAINTING UPON IVORY, and while they equal the works of the Masters in their delicacy and richness of coloring, far surpass them in exactness of delineation and PERFECT FIDELITY TO FEATURE, expression and nature.
Friends, relatives and lovers may now rejoice in the possession of perfect likenesses, at a price that places them in the reach of all. Our painted Photographs are warranted to be all that is here represented, and we guarantee them to preserve their color without fading, at least as long as paintings on ivory.

DAILY SENTINEL.

SAN JUAN DEL NORTE—AN INVITING CITY.—A correspondent of one of the New York papers gives the following description of a city which is becoming somewhat famous:

The inhabitants of San Juan del Norte present the most wretched appearance that animated nature is capable of being reduced to; and to acquire this phantom, every new comer must serve an apprenticeship of at least two years to chills and fever.

The city can boast of about ten frame houses and a lot of bamboo native huts. There is one hotel, kept by a German, but the best, and, indeed all the other houses of accommodation are kept by gentlemen of color. The British Consul owns his own frame house, but the American Consul hires his rooms and dwells in the house with colored men.

The population consisting, as it does of English, Americans, Spaniards, natives and colored people, is said to be about 700. Yet there is no church, no minister, no school. What is the Foreign Mission doing that they have not yet found such a place as San Juan del Norte on the chart of their philantrophy? The British Consul rules supreme, and with all but Americans with a rod of iron. Although there is no church there is a new watch house to be established by his orders. His ship of war serves as a prison when required. There is, also, a Magistrate of his appointment, but the Americans, although he is one of themselves, refuse to recognize him, on the ground of his having served a term in the State Prison of New York, and have placed their protest on record in the office of the American Consul. It can, therefore, be well said of them, they are without law or religion. They must, however, be well conducted, for any crime on their part would have brought the question to an issue by an appeal to the United States.

The commerce of the place is entirely in liquor and plantains. These two articles make the eating and drinking of the inhabitants, but they always savor their food with a large dish of hope that San Juan is soon to become the greatest commercial city of the world. Can nothing be done to gratify their desires?

PLAIN BUT TRUTHFUL.—The Rev. Horace James, in a sermon delivered at Worcester, Massachusetts, on the 25th of May, on the recent outrage in the U. S. Senate, says:

Oh, my friends, say not much at present of Preston S. Brooks. Considering his training and his master, he is as much of a man as could be expected. He is not a sinner above others more respectable in station and influence.—Look rather at the Power of which the honorable (?) ruffian is the truest embodiment: and when you pray, remember that. When you speak and organize your efforts, when you consult, or when you vote, remember that. Note its daring deeds for fitting retribution, and in the day of retribution, let it sternly come.

It should be noticed again that this incident in the U. S. Senate indicates the settled purpose of the Slave Power to subdue to itself the whole land. It was a bold push, and no halfway measure. It has a deep significance. It was done deliberately, and by those who made certain calculation upon the firm support of the Oligarchy, with all its numerous dependencies. It was presumed that the influence that shielded the miscreant who attacked Horace Greeley, and which welcomed still to its embrace the murderer of Keating, as a man of untarnished honor and purity, would also throw the ægis of its powerful protection about any man who should bush in death a voice so eloquent as Sumner's, so caustic upon shameless crime, so searching and fearless in driving out its apologists from their lairs, so successful in arousing torpid consciences, by exhibiting the simple majesty of truth, clothed in a dress of heavenly beauty.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

We have some details of the closing scenes at Cincinnati. The democracy seem to be rejoiced at getting tolerably well out of a bad scrape.

Another batch of contradictory stories comes to us from Kansas. One fact, however is prominent and undisputed; that the "Border Ruffians" have appealed to force, there as in Washington, to "crush out," if they can, free speech and free institutions.

There was a slim and spiritless gathering in this city, Saturday night, to "ratify" the Cincinnati nominations. It was got up exclusively for the benefit of the Barstowites and the Masses gave it the cold shoulder.

A variety of news items will be found under the Telegraph head and in our local column.

The official record of the Republican State Convention at Madison will be found in our columns this morning. The proceedings show the "fire of the flint."

Our New York correspondent gives us another capital letter on the prominent issue of the day, and the duty of Freemen in relation thereto.

The New York market of Saturday shows a decided improvement in prices and feeling.

The city of Detroit has subscribed twenty-five thousand dollars towards sending "aid and comfort" to the beleaguered Freemen of Kansas.

From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, June 3d.

All hearts—all manly hearts at least—here are yet swelling with indignation over the assassin-like outrage which has stained the floor of the Senate House with the blood of one of its members for the offence of free speech! The report of the Committee with the testimony reaches us today, and the desire is universal that the resolution of expulsion be carried. But what chance is there of that, since the Constitution requires the concurrence of two-thirds of the House for expulsion: and nearly one-half of the House is more faithful to the Administration and to Slavery, than to duty and right, and both Slavery and the Administration require that the Bludgeon shall be justified far before free speech! Indeed, of all the lets and hindrances to such a rule as that of President Pierce and to such an institution as Slavery, there is no one more formidable than free discussion, and hence honors, rewards and trophies are showering down from the friends of the Administration and from the slaveholding States on the gallant (?) South Carolinian who took advantage of an unsuspecting man to fell him to the floor, and then, unconscious as he was, to beat him without mercy.

Such is the dread of a free man's logic, that it is deemed gallantry, worthy of all honor, to assassinate him without mercy. And yet, unparalleled and atrocious as is this outrage, it is only because of its individuality, so to speak, and the lofty stage on which it was enacted, that it obtains for the moment precedence in public indignation, over the not less brutal, cowardly and lawless outrages to which the freemen of Kansas are hourly subjected.

There is one root of bitterness and woe—one common root for all these wrongs—Slavery; and that has lorded it over the land so long, that now it claims absolute and speechless submission, whatever may be the enormity of its exactions.

Among the resolutions adopted by our neighboring city of Brooklyn at the great public meeting in condemnation of the murderous assault upon Mr. Sumner, was one that in my judgment should seriously occupy the thoughts of all the representatives of the Free States—the removal of the seat of government from a slave to a free soil.

Plants, animals and man, the crowning glory of creation—are all so formed as to be impressible by the atmosphere which surrounds them and in which they live. The mountaineer is, by the force of position, local influence and the air he breathes, a soldier of Liberty, and a life-long asserter of Freedom; and yet the free Switzer, translated from his mountain home into the service of the Cent Suisses of the French Bourbons, or the Swiss Guards of the Papal throne, becomes by new influences, and the corrupted air of courts, the most effective supporter of despotic power.

At Washington, everything breathes Slavery and of Slavery and dependence. The Slave power is always in the ascendant there; and the Slave pen and the Slave coffles, even within sight of the Capitol, attest the wrongs, and the ostentatiously insolent pretensions and position of Slavery. Take the representatives of the people away from this corrupted sink—this impure air! Place them in the Free West amidst those who are grown up and flourishing under the blessed immunities of the immortal Ordinance of '87.—Let the seat of government be in Ohio, or Wisconsin, or anywhere among the children of the Ordinance, whose strong arms would always know how to defend it—whose honest hearts would scorn the unnatural submission now made to the Slave power.

To those who have studied the early annals of our government, it is known that from the first moment of our Federal Union—even under the Confederation—the struggle of Slavery was constant to get the seat of general government established in a Slave State. It was originally at Philadelphia, then at New York, and occasionally at Annapolis, at Princeton, and at Trenton, and again and again resolutions were passed by Congress for establishing it—now at New York—now at Philadelphia, and once permanently on the bank of the Delaware—all of which were rescinded or nullified by the pertinacious action of the South, intent upon having the advantage of nourishing the young Eagle of the Republic on the foul air of the Slave pen, and holding it in check by the crack of the bloody whip. They finally succeeded, by bargain and sale; and in the exigency of funding the revolutionary debt, and thus saving the faith of the nation—a crisis arose of which Slavery took advantage in order to obtain the concession of the seat of government on the Potomac in exchange for the needed votes for funding the national debt. Fatal hour! and fatal bargain for the Republic!

But of this enough for the present. Meanwhile let the Brooklyn resolution circulate, and let the Free West meditate upon its suggestion.

The Buchanan Ratification (?) Meeting of Saturday Evening.

Such another one would kill the party beyond resurrection. A band of music playing all the afternoon, and cannon firing for a half hour, and only some 400 or 500 of all parties gathered!—The people called for, like the "spirits from the vasty deep," did not come. The Germans, heretofore the main-stay of the party, would not turn out on such an occasion. Every speaker insisted that Buchanan was not his first choice. The great expectations from the announcement that J. E. Arnold, long ago a Whig, was to "sign the paper," were disappointed.

His course of drill as counsel for Garland and Barstow had already led most of the democrats present to regard him as one of them, and there were no tears of surprised rejoicing. The deep feeling of the people was shown in the repeated queries about Kansas, unanswered by Mr. Upham's labored apology for the Missourians and the President, and to crown the cup of democratic misery, the meeting adjourned with deep groans for Brooks, and thundering cheers for Kansas and Charles Sumner! It was pitiful to see the long faces of the leaders, wending homewards.

"Chivalric" Democracy and Courtesy in the U. S. Senate.

The numerous democratic apologists for the cowardly villain Brooks, have much to say in relation to the "provocation" given to Southern men by Mr. Sumner and his political friends in the Senate, and they charge directly that while the latter are models of forbearance, courtesy, and gentlemanly conduct, the former have constantly indulged in "blackguardism" and "abuse" and "indecent language." These epithets have been applied freely to Mr. Sumner's last great speech by democratic editors, who have never read that speech, or, having read it and knowing that they speak falsely, attempt to deceive their readers. But let us appeal to the record, and see what we find which could at length call from a man of Mr. Sumner's mild temperament a speech which, while always within the bounds of parliamentary decorum, and for which no man could call him to order, was unquestionably one of tremendous severity.

On the 27th of July, '52, not very long after Mr. Sumner entered the Senate, he offered a resolution concerning the Fugitive Slave Law, and was refused a hearing, in such a discourteous manner, that General Shields, a democrat, asked:

> "Will you deprive a member of this body of the right of expressing his views, on a subject that for aught we know may interest him?—Will you compel him to be silent? I have sat in this Senate and have listened to treason, uttered by honorable Senators, and yet we have listened patiently; and I ask gentlemen from the South to consider whether anything will be gained by preventing a gentleman from being heard on a question like this?"

Mr. Sumner, however, when the appropriation bills were up, succeeded in obtaining the floor, and spoke for three hours to the subject, on which he was refused utterance before. Immediately on his closing, Clemens, of Alabama, rose and said:

> "I shall only say, Sir, that the ravings of a maniac may be sometimes dangerous, but the barking of a puppy never did any harm."

Mr. Badger, of North Carolina, attempted to answer the speech of Mr. Sumner, and in reply to a civil question from the latter in relation to a quotation from Justice Story, he broke out in this wise:

> "I wish to say that I deem the authority of Justice Story of ten thousand times more value than that of the Senator from Massachusetts, who will please to have the decency not to interrupt me, because I know that these interruptions are made for no fair purpose. I perceive their object, and in no view will he make anything out of it."

Badger further accused Sumner of personally insulting Southern Senators by his attacks upon the Fugitive Law, and said that he ought to be treated with contempt.

On March 3d, 1854, Senator Douglas called Mr. Sumner a "confederate in slander" of Mr. Chase, and accused him of holding his seat in the Senate by "corrupt and dishonorable means."

On the 26th of June, after a speech by Mr. Sumner in introducing a petition of 3000 citizens of Massachusetts, that model of chivalry, Senator Butler, attacked him with gross personalities, while Mason of Virginia, who was particularly disturbed at Mr. Sumner's speaking of the man who claimed the fugitive Burns, as "a slave hunter from Virginia," broke out in the following insolent tone:

> "I say, Sir, the dignity of the American Senate has been rudely, wantonly, grossly assailed by a Senator from Massachusetts, and not only the dignity of the Senate but of the whole people trifled with in the presence of the American Senate, either ignorantly or corruptly—I don't know which, nor do I care.......... Sir, he has denounced a gentleman from Virginia, who goes under the protection of the Constitution and the sanction of the law, into his State to reclaim his property. He has the boldness to speak here of such a man as a 'slave-hunter from Virginia.' The senator from Massachusetts, in the use of such vulgar language here, betrays the vulgarity of his associations at home; and shall it be tolerated here in the American Senate? ....Why, Sir, am I speaking to a fanatic, to one whose reason is dethroned?"

Two days after, Pettit of Indiana, the most abusive man who ever sat in the Senate, was allowed by the President to air his vocabulary against Mr. Sumner.

Clay, of Alabama, the next day, figured largely. He charged Mr. S. with "unblushing presumption and insolence without shame, without contrition or repentance, in contumaciously representing" that he would not return a fellow-man to bondage, and followed this up with remarks which, in the course of a quarter column of the Reports, contain the following specimens of Billingsgate:

> "A sneaking, sinuous, snake-like poltroon, who would violate all the rights of associates or friends, and never make reparation or acknowledge his error, and who held himself irresponsible to all law, feeling the obligation neither of the Divine law, nor the law of the land, nor the law of honor; I ask you, how would such a miscreant be treated? Why, if you could not reach with the arm of the municipal law, if you could not send him to the penitentiary, you would send him to Coventry. You would exclude him from the pale of society; you would neither extend to him the courtesies that are shown gentlemen, nor permit him to offer such to you. You would make him feel that he was shunned like a leper, and loathed like a filthy reptile."

The Louisville Journal gives the following specimen, occurring near the close of the last session of Congress:

> "We happened to be in the Senate Chamber near the close of the last session of Congress during one of the night discussions of all manner of Slavery questions. Judge Butler, who is really a gentleman of many fine and generous personal qualities, had become exceedingly elated from frequent visits to the Senatorial restaurant. Sumner was making a severe speech that evidently had reference to the forcible expulsion of Mr. Hoar, a venerable citizen of Massachusetts, from the limits of South Carolina, but he did not mention his name. Mr. Butler interrupted him by asking in a fierce tone, "Does he mean South Carolina?" Sumner proceeded without noticing the interruption. 'I demand, exclaimed Butler, starting again to his feet, 'whether he means South Carolina; for if he does, let him say so, and I will give him something to make him remember me and South Carolina as long as he lives.'

Not to multiply quotations, here is a specimen of Douglas, being language used by him in his place, addressed to Mr. Sumner:

> What does the Senator mean by this attack upon the majority of the body? What, I ask, does the Senator mean? What does he want us to do? We already refuse to know him socially. Does he want us to KICK him? I ask again—Does he want us to KICK him?

These instances must suffice to show the manner in which Mr. Sumner has been treated since his entrance into the Senate; and these are but specimens of the language and tone used towards him and his friends every week—almost every day—since he took his seat. He has borne with them nobly, till forbearance ceased to be a virtue, and when at length he rises in his place, and replies in a tone of severity, though with a regard to parliamentary decorum which his opponents never shewed, he is beaten to the floor with a bludgeon, and there are Northern men "democratic" editors, who charge him with having provoked the attack by uncalled for assaults upon courteous and gentlemanly Senators, his associates!

INCIDENTS AT CINCINNATI.—The Editor of the Madison Argus (E. A. CALKINS) writing from Cincinnati, records the following pleasant incident in the first day's proceedings:

> "The Convention was about proceeding to its business when the bogus Missouri delegates knocked down the door-keeper, and with a flourish of pistols and bowie-knives forced their way over half-a-dozen policemen into the hall. There was a fair prospect for a general row, and a rush from all parts of the house. Quiet was finally restored, the "Missouri borderers" having forced their way to seats."

— And the Editor of the Madison Patriot, (Mr. CARPENTER) writing from the same point of observation, makes the following "odorous" comparison:

> The delegations were all arranged, so as to sit together, and as I looked upon the various delegations I could not escape the comparison that Wisconsin, among that great array of talent, appeared like a fly speck upon a church steeple.—The Hon. Sat Clark, and the Hon. Geo. Brass Supplement sat side by side. O, Jo-ru-sa-lem!—One such sight of an intellectual pyramid, is enough to set the heart dizzy.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Official Report of Proceedings.

WEDNESDAY, June 4th, 1856,
12 o'clock, M.

Mr. W. A. White, Chairman of the State Central Committee, called the Convention to order by nominating L. P. Harvey, of Rock County, as the Chairman of the temporary organization. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Harvey, on taking the chair, made a brief and stirring speech, which elicited frequent and enthusiastic bursts of applause. He said that this was a cause so all-important that it was high above all personal feelings, all prejudices and preferences, and must, by its own power, render the proceedings of this Convention harmonious. He wished to see delegates chosen whose names would at once secure confidence and respect, when they were seen by the people. He spoke of the combination against the cause of Freedom, and urged union and mutual concession.

On motion of Rufus King, Gen. J. H. Lane, of Kansas, was admitted to the floor as a member of the Convention.

Gen. Lane arose and thanked the Convention in the name of his constituents for the honor conferred upon them in admitting their Representative as a member of this Convention.

The Chairman, Mr. Harvey, said that the people of Kansas had a right to be heard in this Convention.

The report of the Committee was adopted!

The Chair announced the following Committee on resolutions: J. F. Potter, of Walworth; Byron Paine, of Milwaukee; N. H. Dale, of Racine; D. D. Cameron, of La Crosse; Colburn, of Grant; A. Stevens, of Greene; T. O. Howe, of Brown; Phillips, of Fond du Lac; Chas. Roeser, of Manitowoc.

Gen. Rufus King, from the committee on permanent organization, reported the following as the officers of the convention:

For President.—Hon. M. M. JACKSON, of Iowa.

For Vice Presidents—Hon. Wyman Spooner, of Walworth; Hon. T. O. Howe, of Brown; and N. H. Clemmons of Grant.

For Secretaries—A. J. Langworthy, of Milwaukee; and Wm. A. Lawrence, of Rock.

The report was unanimously adopted.

On being conducted to the chair, after returning thanks for the honor conferred upon him, Judge Jackson spoke as follows:

We have this day assembled as the representatives of the Republican party in Wisconsin, to choose delegates to the approaching National Convention to be held in Philadelphia, for the purpose of selecting candidates for the office of President and Vice-President of the United States; and to adopt such other measures as may advance the interests and conduce to the success of the great Republican cause.

We have arrived at a crisis both alarming and momentous in the history of our country.

But two years ago, when, as a nation, we were enjoying a comparative repose from the turmoils of political agitation and sectional strife, the slavery propagandists in Congress, without petitions from the people of the slaveholding States, by the faithless repeal of the Missouri Compromise, wantonly renewed the agitation of the slavery question; and thus they who are ever ready to charge agitation upon others, became themselves the instigators and instruments of that agitation which now convulses the Union.

The repeal of the Missouri compact was an act of legislative perfidy without a parallel in the annals of our national legislation.

Such a breach of national faith, such an attack upon the rights of the north, such a blow at the interests of free labor and the cause of Freedom itself, naturally aroused the indignation and provoked the resistance of the people of the Free States.

But the exertions of the slave power did not stop here. It was not enough that the fair and broad domains of Kansas, once solemnly consecrated to freedom, were exposed to the blighting curse of slavery. The people of Kansas themselves, a majority of whom in the exercise of their constitutional rights, had resolved upon making Kansas a Free State, instead of being permitted, in their own way, to regulate their domestic affairs; were to be subdued. Hordes of armed invaders from Missouri entered the territory, overawed and overcame the peaceable, law-abiding settlers, controlled the elections at the point of the bayonet, and forced upon the people of Kansas a foreign Legislature.

Nor was this all. The enactments of this fraudulent Legislature, which would disgrace an Algerine despotism, are now, under a pro-slavery administration, upheld and enforced by the arms of a Federal Soldiery. The people of Kansas, guilty of no crime but a love of freedom, are stricken down; and Kansas, whose people are driven from their homes, and whose towns are sacked, now lies bleeding and struggling at the feet of her Federal oppressors. And thus in the nineteenth century, under a government professing to be free, and under an administration claiming to be democratic, we have seen rights violated and wrongs inflicted, which have no precedents in the history of free Republics. To vindicate these rights, to redress these wrongs and to restore the action of the Federal government on the subject of slavery, to the principles of Washington and Jefferson, are the noble and patriotic purposes of the Republican party. The accomplishment of these purposes will most effectually secure, alike the rights of the States, the liberties of the people, and the integrity of the Union.

Let us then, in view of the aggressions of the past, and to provide for the security of the future, around these Republican council fires, resolve, with renewed energy, and with one heart and one spirit, to uphold the Republican Banner, on which is inscribed, "Eternal Hostility to Slavery Extension;" which banner, as the freemen of Wisconsin were the first to raise, so they will be the last to desert; but under it, through good report and bad report, will work on and work ever, until it shall wave in triumph over a redeemed, a renovated and a regenerated land.

Mr. C. L. Sholes read a letter from Dr. Ray, of Chicago, the Secretary of the Kansas Aid Society, stating that the Society had appointed Julius White, Esq. to communicate with the Convention on the subject of aiding Kansas to become a Free State.

On motion, Mr. White was admitted to a seat within the bar.

Messrs. Densmore, of Walworth, Crane, of Iowa; and Dodge, of Kenosha, each presented resolutions strongly condemnatory of the principles of Know Nothingism, forwarded as instructions by their constituents. Those read by Mr. O. were adopted by the constituents of Chas. Roeser, of Manitowoc, and presented by him, Mr. R. not being present. They were referred to the committee on resolutions.

Mr. Hale renewed his motion to appoint a committee to report names for a State Central Committee, which prevailed.

Mr. Reynolds moved to proceed to elect Delegates from the State at Large, to the National Republican Convention.

On motion of Mr. W. Spooner the motion was amended so that the Convention proceeded to elect the 15 Delegates to which the State is entitled at once.

The following Delegates who were recommended by the Delegations from the several districts were elected:

From the First Congressional District—J. F. Potter, of Walworth; A. E. Ray, alternate; C. S. Chase, of Racine; W. W. Vaughan, alternate; Theo. Newell, of Kenosha; J. B. Gilson, alternate; Rufus King, of Milwaukee, E. D. Holton, alternate.

Second Congressional District—L. P. Harvey, of Rock; Jas. Campbell, alternate; Walter D. McIndoe, of Marathon; Wm. H. Spain, alternate; G. W. Dean, of Dane; J. Allen Barber, alternate; Milton Barlow of La Crosse, S. D. Hastings alternate; C. Kuntz, of Saux, Chas. Armstrong alternate.

Third Congressional District—M. M. Davis of Columbia, Dan'l. Jones, of Jefferson, Geo. S. Graves, of Sheboygan; E. S. Phillips, of Fond du Lac, and T. O. Howe, of Brown.

On the motion of C. L. Sholes, Esq., Mr. Julius White was invited to address the Convention on the part of the Illinois Kansas Aid Society, and made some appropriate remarks concerning the necessity for immediate action in aid of the Free State men of that Territory.

The chair announced the following committee to report names for a State Central Committee: Messrs. Hale of Rock, Reynolds of Dane, Spooner, of Walworth, King of Milwaukee, Dennett of Sheboygan, Davis of Columbia, and McIndoe of Marathon.

A motion to form a Kansas State Settlers Society was tabled temporarily.

During the absence of the Committee on resolutions, stirring speeches were made by various gentlemen.

The committee on resolutions, by their chairman, Mr. Potter, reported a series of resolutions, which after some discussion were unanimously adopted as follows:

Resolved, That the great and only issue which now divides the political parties of this nation is that of Freedom or Slavery.

That Freedom and the equal rights of all persons should be recognised, closely guarded, and at all times defended by the General Government, in all the Territories of the United States.

That Congress should never hereafter admit any State into the Union unless with a constitution which acknowledges and secures the right of every person, guilty of no crime, within its territorial limits, to life, liberty, and property.

That the Fugitive Slave Act of 1850 is a violation of all constitutional law—is opposed to the moral sense of civilized men—is an outrage upon civil and religious liberty, and ought to be repealed without delay.

That all men, irrespective of nativity or religion, are entitled to equal rights.

Resolved, That Congress has the power to prohibit the introduction of slavery into United States Territory, and to abolish it, wherever it exists, not within the limits of any sovereign state; and it is its duty to exercise that power immediately, without compromise, and without reference to latitude or longitude.

Resolved, That we hereby unqualifiedly condemn all secret political organizations as dangerous to our political and civil rights.

Resolved, That the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the subsequent attempt to force slavery into Kansas by the instrumentality of "Border Ruffians" whose atrocities have not only been connived at, but openly sanctioned and aided by the Military and Judicial powers of the government, has rendered forever impossible any further compromise between liberty and slavery, and has introduced a war of extermination between these antagonizing elements, in all places where slavery can be reached by the constitutional power of the Federal Government, and that we take up the gauntlet thus thrown down to us, and pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor on the side of liberty in this great struggle, until slavery shall be exterminated wherever it can be constitutionally done.

Resolved, That the late assault of a representative from South Carolina upon a Senator of Massachusetts, was not simply an attack of one man upon another, of a dastardly assassin upon a gentleman and statesman, but it was a cowardly blow inflicted by a representative of the slave power upon an apostle of Freedom, and was an exhibition of the character of the institution of slavery, which educates men in crime and transforms them into fiends of the blackest dye.

Resolved, That we agree with the Boston Post in the opinion that that attack "was ill-advised and unfortunate," but not so unfortunate or so shameful as that a citizen of Massachusetts, the editor of a free press and of a school familiar with the English language, could find no stronger and fitter terms in which to characterize the outrage, and that any citizen of the North who justifies or excuses said assault in the slightest degree ought to be cast forth from the bosom of a free people as a traitor to their best interests and dearest rights.

Rufus King, from the committee appointed to recommend names for a Republican State Central Committee, reported the following which were accepted.

L. P. Harvey, of Rock, Chairman.

N. W. Dean, E. Ilsley, Thos. Reynolds, Dane County; L. H. Cary, Sheboygan; K. L. Fleischer, Rock; J. C. Cover, Grant; Byron Paine, Milwaukee; Chas. Roeser, Manitowoc.

C. L. Sholes offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we urge upon Congress, as a remedy for the existing evils in Kansas, her immediate admission as a State, into this Union, under the Topeka Constitution.

D. E. Hale offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the distinguished public services and manly devotion of the Honorables Wm. H. Seward and S. P. Chase in the advocacy of the principles of sound constitutional freedom, entitle them to our admiration and confidence, and that the nomination of either of them for the Presidency, at the Philadelphia Convention, would secure our most hearty approval, though we will cordially support any sound Republican which may there be nominated.

The resolution was amended by including the name of Hon. Charles Sumner, and thus passed.

On motion, Edward D. Holton, of Milwaukee, was nominated by acclamation as a Republican candiate for elector for the State at large.

The Committee then proceeded to ballot for a second, with the following result:

T. O. Howe	46
J. H. Knowlton	22
N. H. Virgin	4
J. A. Barber	8
C. Billinghurst	1

T. O. Howe, having a majority, was declared unanimously elected:

On motion of C. S. Chase, the resolution in relation to the Kansas Settlers' Society was taken from the table.

When, on motion, a committee was appointed, consisting of C. S. Chase, Jones of Iowa, and Blake of Dodge, to report at the evening session.

Adjourned to 8 o'clock.

8 O'CLOCK P. M.

While awaiting the report of the committee on resolutions, to whom was recommitted one of them for alteration, Hon. T. O. Howe, of Green Bay, and Judge Spooner, of Walworth, addressed the Convention in condemnation of the dastardly outrage committed upon Senator Sumner.

Mr. Chase offered the following report in relation to the Kansas Settlers' Society.

To the State Republican Convention:

Your Committee appointed to report a plan of State organization for the purpose of securing Freedom to Kansas and her citizens now under the arrest of Border Ruffians, most respectfully report,

That they recommend that the State of Wisconsin act through the "Kansas Aid Association of this State" for the purposes above specified, and that Kansas Settler's Associations be immediately organized in every county of this State to co-operate with the State Association, and that every man in this State between the ages of 18 and 45 enrol himself in a Kansas Settler's Company of his town or county, and hold himself in readiness to be drafted to go to Kansas whenever it shall be necessary to effect her Freedom and thereby the freedom of her inoffensive citizens. And further that each member of this Convention take this matter into immediate consideration on his return home, by laying the same before the people of his district.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

C. S. CHASE,
JAMES JONES, } Committee.
WM. BLAKE,

The following names were handed in to whom any business connected with the Republican cause may be communicated and it is desired that every assembly district in the State furnish names for that purpose.

A. T. Luce, Dane; Peter Hill, Cross Plains; John W. Ford, Berry; O. B. Hazletine, Black Earth; P. H. Frame, Dartford; D. W. C. Benham, Berlin.

On motion of Rufus King the thanks of the meeting were voted the officers for the dignified and able manner in which their duties were discharged.

On motion the Convention adjourned sine die to hear Col. Lane address the people on the wrongs of Kansas.

MORTIMER M. JACKSON, Pres't.
A. J. LANGWORTHY, Sec'y.

PARODI.

We take great pleasure in copying the following from the Pennsylvania Inquirer:

TWO STARS IN THE SAME HEMISPHERE.—It is a curious coincidence, that Teresa Parodi, the most unpretending and the least envious of mortals, should be, by a combination of circumstances, almost always brought into a forced rivalry with another great star as shining as herself. It is, perhaps, if the public judgment wanted any such confirmation, a proof that Parodi has all those excellencies, as a singer and as an artist, which stand the test of time, and are neither more nor less than the attributes of genius. Parodi, who in 1851, came after the great excitement of Jenny Lind, found herself, in August, 1855, again placed in juxta-position with a great public excitement, and one of the greatest living artists of the mimic scene.

Rachel plays at the Metropolitan, and Parodi sings at Niblo's; there is a full house at the Metropolitan, but there is a full room at Niblo's—an audience such as Jenny Lind and Sontag had alone attracted. Now she is in Boston—as it happens, Rachel is there too. The Athens of the United States is preparing its classic lore, to witness Rachel's impersonations of the heroines of ancient Greece and Rome; but Parodi lures them forth—she announces a concert, and Rachel, for the moment is forgotten; and for seven nights Parodi finds her audiences, not even lessened of one of her auditors by the tragic queen. All listen, entranced, to the passionate voice, moulded and finished by the highest art, and none regret that they had not preferred the unknown genius to the one they love and appreciate so well.

Parodi has, though, it must not be forgotten, a greater right than any other artist to the sympathy and admiration of the Americans. She may almost be said to have achieved her fame here, then carried it back in its effulgence to the great capitals of Europe, Paris and London, both of whose Royal Theatres opened their doors to the young Italian prima donna, who had first revealed on the Opera stage of the new hemisphere the true excellencies of the lyric stage of the classic land of Italy—uniting passion, pathos and power, not only as a singer, but as a great and admirable actress. When Parodi first came, engaged by Max Maretzek for the Astor Palace Opera House, she had sung but two seasons, one in Italy and the other in London, she was young in years, but it seemed as though Pasta, (her counsellor,) desirous of immortality, had infused into her pupil that grandeur, dignity and self-possession which long years had given to herself, but which, from the first time she had trod the stage, Teresa Parodi had displayed.

She came not only in the midst of the Jenny Lind excitement, but immediately after the celebrated Havana troupe, where Bosio, Steffanone, Tedesco, Salvi, Marini and Badiali, had sung all the summer to crowded houses at fifty cents.—Fifty cents! and the Astor Place ticket cost $2, 50! Here were two tremendous disadvantages, Parodi had to contend against the ideal and the positive—yet people forgot the Havana troupe, and paid unmurmuringly the required price to hear and see Parodi. Who does not remember the impression conveyed by her Norma—where passions, in all ages the same, were for the first time by Parodi invested with the mild depth of the untutored denizens of the barbaric ages?—Then Lucrezia, a woman full of passions as strong as those of Norma, but how different!—Centuries had gone by, and Lucrezia, crowned with the ducal diadem of the middle ages, nor loved, nor hated, and did the oak-crowned priestess. Romeo, the impassioned Romeo, passed too before us; Giovanna di Napoli, a creation of the artist's, to music composed in America for her, an Italian Opera composed for an American house by Strakosch—the very Strakosch whose admirable talents and refined taste we can judge at all the Concerts given in this country by Parodi.

Semiramide, too, we had, and none have ever given us here, before or since, an idea of the Assyrian Queen, or of the elaborate music of the great Maestro. After enacting all these, to audiences enthusiastic at the last performance as the first, Parodi, in the midst of her triumphs, left for Europe. There, from the fastidious and sated public of London and Paris, she again won fresh laurels, the first among the first. But she remembered the public who had so warmly welcomed her; she did not wait till time had impaired her powers and her voice, and bring to the United States, as other artists have done, a wreck of former excellence; but in the very height of her triumphs, in the hey day of her youth, when time has done all to improve, and nothing to impair, she comes back to us smiling, happy, and grateful for the past, and for the faithful memory that her American patrons have kept of her.

A MILLION OF DOLLARS AND A THOUSAND MEN.—GERRIT SMITH, in a letter to GEO. GEDDES and others of Syracuse, expresses the opinion that the difficulties in Kansas can only be properly terminated by force. To this end he thinks a million of dollars and a thousand men should be raised in New York at once. As he is no fighting man himself, he proposes to do his share of the work by contributions of money, and he offers $10,000 toward the million!

☞ How dares he approach a Senator to give him his hand? He would deserve to have himself spit in the face for so doing.

Senator Douglas said this to Senator Sumner, on the floor of the Senate Chamber. And yet Douglas justifies Brooks' assault upon Sumner, because of the latter's "discourteous" remarks in reply to Senator Butler!

BANKING AND COLLECTING OFFICE OF MARSHALL & ILSLEY,
Milwaukee, June 7, 1856.

Editor of Daily Wisconsin:

We noticed a few days since you quoted the Mercantile Bank, Hartford, Conn., in a list of doubtful banks taken from Nicholas' Reporter, New York. So we have to request you to publish the following letter just received from Geo. P. Bissell & Co., Bankers, Hartford, in reply to a letter of ours, making inquiries in regard to it. We would add that Messrs. Bissell & Co., are Bankers of large means, and of the highest character and respectability, and have no interest in making any statement in regard to this Bank, but what they know to be perfectly correct.

Very truly yours,

Caution to Western Merchants.

WOLFE'S
SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS.

THIS CELEBRATED MEDICINAL BEVERAGE IS manufactured at the manufactory of the undersigned, at Schiedam, Holland. He is the sole importer, as well as the exclusive manufacturer of the article, and no preparation bearing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured either from his establishment in New York, or from his agents in other cities, is genuine and reliable.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and allunacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while in cases of dropsy, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a facsimile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
UDOLPHO WOLFE,
Nos. 18, 20 and 22 Beaver Street, New York.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

Since the introduction of my Scheidam Schnapps into the United States, a number of Liquor Mixers in New York, Boston and Philadelphia have commenced putting up mixed and poison Gin, and calling it Schnapps; that name belongs expressly to my article, all others are counterfeits and impositions on the public.

Caution to Persons who drink at Bars and Hotels.

Numerous complaints are made of persons who keep Bars on Steamboats and in Hotels, who fill my empty bottles with common Gin, and sell it to the unsuspecting for my SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS. I would therefore advise all who drink the Schnapps at such places, to MARK THE APPEARANCE OF THE BOTTLE; and if the outside wrapper or label should be defaced, to REFUSE TO DRINK UNLESS A FRESH BOTTLE IS OPENED.

CHILLS AND FEVER.

TO THOSE who are afflicted with this disagreeable and baffling malady, we would state, that after years of hitherto unavailing research, a medicine has been discovered which will, in every case, effect a certain and permanent cure of this dreaded disease. It is not a quack nostrum prepared to extract money from sufferers, for the proprietor offers to refund the money if a cure is not effected after following the directions. He is assured by the evidence of hundreds of cures which they have effected, that this medicine is in reality the remedy so long desired in the Western country. This valuable medicine is prepared in the form of a pill, from the bark of a shrub, which has proved to be a perfect antidote to Malaria. They are simple and plain in their nature, powerful and active in their operation, and perfectly harmless to the system, having no other than a specific effect upon the disease which is truly wonderful. Some persons have stated that these pills must contain Arsenic, or some powerful mineral, owing to their quick effect in curing this disease. The proprietor would state that he will pay one thousand dollars to any chemist who will find one particle of mineral in this composition.

Certificates of cure from persons of the highest respectability can be obtained by calling at the Drug Store of HENRY FESS, Jr., No. 195 East Water street.

N. B. One great recommendation for these pills are, that they only require about five to effect a cure. Enquire for THAYER'S OMEGA PILL, for the immediate cure of chills and fever or intermittent fevers of every description. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by FRED. W. THAYER, 607 Washington street, Boston.

THE ONLY MEDAL AWARDED
BY THE NEW YORK EXHIBITION TO THE ENGLISH or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers, has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, for their WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE,
whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health, is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal. I can, with truth, say there is nothing in a traveller's baggage so essential to the comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce."

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their Sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most palatable, as well as the most wholesome, Sauce made."

This Sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

☞ THE IMMENSE MASS OF TESTIMONY IN favor of Hoofland's German Bitters, convinces us that the article is all it is represented to be, and in consequence we advise a trial of it by those afflicted with diseases for which it is recommended.

R. CHATFIELD, Esq., said:

LOWELL, Dodge Co., Wis., Nov. 1, 1851.—"Over a year ago I sent some money to you from Canada, and received some of your German Bitters, which I used and found great relief from. My health has improved to such a degree, that I am again able to attend to my business. A large number of the dispeptics in this neighborhood have had to send to Milwaukee for the medicine. An agent here could sell large quantities, as I know it to be a sure cure."

Samuel Moore, Platteville, Wis.; James L. Manville, Jefferson, Wis.; Holden, Kemp & Co., Janesville, Wis.; and others in that State, have also expressed their great confidence in the virtues of the Bitters. See advertisement.

A HUMAN LIFE SAVED.

DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, Esq.—Dear Sir:—As I took your medicine on consignment, "no cure, no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually ran down while using it until my lungs and liver were congested to the degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors, too, did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. CONKLIN says:—"I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle."

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M.'s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

Yours with respect,
A. HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to caution the public in these words:

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence end their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietors of any other medicine say as much if they dare,' &c."

Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the Certificates of Cures, and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of N. Y., in favor of its HARMLESS CHARACTER, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.

Fever and Ague—an Infallible Cure.

WE DEFY THE WORLD to produce any medicine which does not contain Quinine, Arsenic, Mercury or any noxious or deadly compound, to cure this annoying disease so effectually as Carter's Spanish Mixture. While it contains none of the above named dangerous articles, yet it possesses a power in relieving and curing Fever and Ague which cannot be approached by any of them separately or in combination. It acts specifically on the Liver, purifies the Blood, opens the pores of the Skin, and assists nature to expel from the system the seeds of disease, or what is as bad, the remains of the Mineral Drugs, which clog and finally destroy the constitution.

See the cure of Mr. Longden of Virginia. He had chills twice a day for 3 years, nothing would relieve him until he tried Carter's Spanish Mixture, only 3 bottles of which effectually restored him to health, nor has he had a return of the disease since.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, JUNE 7.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

William Godhead and Elizabeth Mayhern, drunk, fined $1, the former, in default of payment, sent to jail. John McGrath and Philip Diebro, fast driving on bridge, fined $2 each. Butler & Bower, charged with violating ordinance relating to Omnibusses, Hackney Coaches, &c.; case continued to June 11, at 9 A. M. A. F. Phillippe, violating ordinance relating to nuisance, case continued to June 10th, at 10 A. M. Patrick Foley, charged with stealing fire wood from Mississippi Rail Road, nol. pros. entered by District Attorney, and defendant discharged. Thos. Oates, charged with assault and battery upon Emma Terki, were discharged, no person appearing to prosecute. Brian Carana, charged with stealing a coat from Michael Broderick, after being examined, was discharged.

STEALING A SHAWL.—A woman named Bridget Sullivan was charged, upon a warrant issued on the complaint of Mary Hickey, with stealing a shawl worth $9, at the Orphan Fair held in Young's Hall, belonging to complainant. The case was adjourned to June 10th, for examination.

STEALING APRONS.—A woman named Grusser was arrested the night previous, charged with stealing aprons from a German stopping at the house of her husband; one of the aprons alleged to have been stolen was found on her. No examination has been yet had.

THE ARREST OF DRUNKEN PERSONS.—Much has been said of late in relation to the arrest of drunken persons by the Police. An ordinance "adopted (unanimously) by the Common Council, October 22, 1855," makes it the duty of the Police so to do. The language of the Section applicable, is "Any person who shall be found intoxicated in the city of Milwaukee, &c."

This ordinance, passed unanimously by the Council, makes it imperative upon the Policemen, and by reading the 5th subdivision of Section 40 of the "rules and regulations for the government of the Police," it will be seen that any Policeman who, seeing a drunken man in the streets should fail to arrest him, would be liable to "be immediately discharged or dismissed from office." Whether this ordinance be right or wrong, the blame if any there be, rests with the Council who passed it, and not with the Police. To appoint a man to an office, and then abuse him for performing its duties, is not the duty, but derogatory to the dignity of the Press.

WORTH AND WEALTH: a Collection of Maxims, Morals and Miscellanies, for Merchants and Men of Business; by FREEMAN HUNT, editor of the Merchant's Magazine, &c.

We are indebted to ARCH. WILSON, bookseller, for a copy of this admirable and timely work. It is just what its title indicates, and such a book by a man like Freeman Hunt must be well worth reading, worth taking home by the young men just entering into business life, as well as by those who have long trod its mazes, often bewildering—often tempting to sway from right. We commend the book to our readers, one and all.

CYRILLA, a Romance; by the author of "Initials."

FRED GRAHAM, or Masks and Faces; by S. Frederick Smith.

PHILIP ROLLO, or the Scottish Musqueteers, by Capt. JAS. GRANT, author of "Frank Hinton," &c.

We have copies of the above new books, published by GARRETT & Co., New York, from WILSON. Having no time to read them, we can only acknowledge their receipt, remarking that the "Initials" was one of the best novels ever written, and another by the same writer cannot but be popular.

PARODI'S CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—The peerless PARODI, assisted by STRAKOSCH and his charming lady, gives one of her inimitable entertainments at Concert Hall this evening. The Programme, which will be found in our advertising columns, embraces a number of musical gems, and is, indeed, rich in attraction. The Hall will be conveniently arranged, every seat numbered, and ushers in attendance to point out their places to the audience. As this is Parodi's only Concert in our city, we cannot doubt that it will attract the largest and most brilliant audience of the season.

PARODI and her party give a Concert in Madison tomorrow evening, and at Janesville on Wednesday, proceeding thence to Galena and Dubuque. She meets everywhere with triumphant success.

DEFRAUDING FARMERS.—Two men named Leavy were arrested on Saturday, at the Stoughton Depot, on the Miss. R. Road, for stealing from farmers. They were dealers in grain, would pay 3 or 4 cents per bushel more than other buyers, and then, out of a large lot of grain steal 3 or 4 bushels to make up the higher price paid.—They were to be examined somewhere in Dane Co., probably Madison.

THEATRE.—LAST NIGHT BUT ONE.—The Manager brings out to-night, for the first time, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The piece has been carefully rehearsed, and will be well played. It is a most effective drama. The favorite farce of "The Lady and the Devil" precedes "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This is the last night but one of the season. To-morrow the Theatre closes with the benefit of Mrs. THORNE, an estimable lady and an excellent actress.

IMPOSITION.—We are told that our city authorities charge PARODI twenty-five dollars license for her concert to-night! This is both unjust and impolite. Had it been a Circus, or Menagerie, or Negro Minstrels, the license fee would probably have been fixed as low as $5.—If this extra charge is insisted upon, we hope that the public will make it up to PARODI and her party.

"CITY LAND OFFICE HERALD,"—CALEB WALL, editor and publisher.

This new paper made its appearance Saturday, and excited much attention. It is filled with a remarkable collection of interesting, useful and entertaining articles, religious, moral, didactic, prophetic, pathetic, historic, philosophic, and real-estateic, and more particularly, Murray's additionic. The price is very low for the quality.

THE DOG ORDINANCE—LOOK OUT.—Persons owning valuable Dogs will do well to consult the provisions of the Dog Ordinance which is to be enforced by the Police, from and after to-day. Every Dog running at large, is liable to capital punishment, unless protected as the ordinance provides.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court was adjourned sine die on Saturday, after the disposal of some Chancery business. Judge Hubbell holds Court at Waukesha to-day, we believe, and will hold a special term of the Circuit Court in this city before retiring from the bench.

CHRISTY'S MINSTRELS.—This band of minstrels, who have given three very successful entertainments in our city during the past week, will return here on Wednesday and perform for four more evenings.

SEASONED LUMBER.—Attention is invited to the card of of Mr. Helliwel in our advertising columns, offering for sale a cargo of seasoned lumber.

DANCING EXHIBITION.—Professor Deuchar gives an exhibition for his pupils and patrons, at Treat's Hall, to-morrow evening. It promises to be a very attractive affair.

City Land Office.

TWO HUNDRED desirable and valuable Lots to be sold in the First Ward, City of Milwaukee. On Wednesday morning, June 18, at 10 o'clock, I will sell to the highest bidder, on the easiest terms property has ever been sold, all of that desirable plat of Murray's Addition, containing two hundred beautiful lots. The said Addition joins on the Lockwood and Glidden's Addition, and joins also the city property which is to be appropriated for a City Park. The lots are all very beautiful, high, and covered over with elm and maple groves; they are one mile this side the Light House. The Plank Avenues are to run through them, in fact it is the most desirable property to make investments in of any property that I have ever sold. The lots are of a good size, forty feet front, one hundred and twenty feet deep, with alley's in the rear. You must all agree with me when I say that the First Ward has the pre eminence over all other wards for beautiful and private residences. The lots in Murray's Addition will command as high price in five years as lots do now in Astor, Marshall, Cass and Van Buren streets. There is no reason why they should not; our city is bound to go ahead, she is bound to have a population of one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, and the modern style of houses which are now going up in Lockwood & Glidden's Addition, with the various Parks around, certainly must make lots in Murray's Addition desirable and valuable. At all events there is no great risk to run. The terms of sale are very easy. The lots will sell low, affording an opportunity to all classes to secure them a home, and when once a home is obtained it never can be taken away, no matter what misfortunes may occur; for our laws are made to protect the widows and orphans, and the unfortunate.—Terms of sale will be one fifth down, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years with 7 per cent interest. The best title in the world. Mr. Murray gets it from Government. I will have one thousand Lithographic maps of said Addition in a few days, which I will give to all who wish one, if they will call at my store

CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Cincinnati, June 6.

Convention being called to order, Shiels, of Min., moved that it is the duty of the General Government, as far as the Constitution will permit, to aid in the construction of safe overland routes between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Motion to table resolution was lost by ayes 76, nays 200.

Delegates from Mo., rose to demand the suspension of rules.

Pettit endeavored to speak on the propriety of an amendment, declaring it the duty of the General Government to use all proper constitutional power—object named, but not heard.

Motion to suspend rules for the purpose of entertaining the resolution. Carried—ayes 208, nays 88.

Main question being ordered, resolution carried by ayes 205, nays 37.

At Pettit's suggestion the word proper was placed before constitutional in the resolution before its passage. The motion to proceed to ballot for Vice President was adopted.

Mr. Mead, of Virginia, proposed Lynn Boyd, of Kentucky.

Harris, of Illinois, begged to propose a man, though born on the banks of the Hudson, now resides on the banks of the Mississippi. It had been his pride to serve under his command in regiments from Illinois that never turned back on friends or foes he was first to plant the American flag over the walls of the Montezuma, his name is Gen Quitman. Lewis, of Louisiana, named Jno. C. Breckenridge of Kentucky.—Breckenridge returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him, but was one of those who believed promotion should follow seniority. He withdrew his name.

R. Chapman, of Ala., nominated Benj. J. Fitzpatrick, of Ala. Brown, of Tenn., nominated Aaron V. Brown, of Tenn. Delegate from N. Carolina, nominated J. A. Sedden, of Va.—Sedden, of Va., returned thanks for the honor done him, and withdrew his name. Avery, of N. C., then presented the name of J. C. Dobbs of N. C. Underwood, of Georgia, nominated A. V. Johnson, Georgia Roll being called, Maine nominated Gen. Rusk, of Texas. Pollock, of Texas, immediately withdrew his name by authority.—Trustam Polk, of Mo., was nominated by a delegate from Deleware, but was subsequently withdrawn. Roll called—Vermont cast a plumper for Breckenridge, of Ky. N. Y. being called, 18 votes were announced by Ludlow for Quitman: Cochrane immediately rose and said that the vote was not correct. A little by-play took place, and one delegate said he wanted to vote independently.

The President said he would recive no vote except from Chairmen of delegations.

Beardsley cast 17 Hard votes for Bayard, of Delaware. Virginia cast her votes for Breckenridge. Illinois voted for Quitman. California announced her vote for A. V. Brown.

After the first ballot, Delaware withdrew the name of Bayard, of Delaware.

A delegate from Connecticut begged to say that if members of Convention South of Mason & Dixon's line could not agree on a candidate, Connecticut would go for their candidate; if not he had the name of a distinguished son of Connecticut, Isaac Toucey to propose.

Another delegate said it was not so; Connecticut reserved Towcey for higher game. He named Brown.

Tennessee withdrew and cast her vote for Breckenridge.

Several other States then changed for Breckenridge, and amidst the excitement Mississippi withdrew Quitman and recorded her vote for Breckenridge.

Judge Beardsley for N. Y. changed votes from Butler to Breckenridge.

The vote was then announced as follows: Breckenridge 255.

The nomination unanimous and received with immense applause.

Mr. Breckenridge being loudly called for took the stand amidst deafening cheers, and said that the result was quite unexpected. In a personal aspect of it, he had no words to express the profound gratitude he felt for the mark of honor and confidence from the Democrats of the United States. He did not intend to make a speech, but only return thanks from his heart, for honors done him. With respect to the first nomination he could only say that Mr. Buchanan had lived down detraction and calumny, who, now about to be crowned with the highest honor to be conferred upon any American citizen, he essayed to say generally that he was the state rights delegate; and he trusted that if elected to the high office to which he was nominated, he should never do anything to forfeit the high trust reposed in him.

Preston, of Ky., was called out and made a speech, pledging himself, as formerly a Whig, that "not less than two hundred thousand earnest, most devoted adherents of the old Whig party will be found standing by them shoulder to shoulder animated by no hope but public welfare, forgetful of the past, hoping only by bold fearless alliance to ensure victory at the approaching presidential contest.

He said further:

In that tempest of fury and fanaticism which burst loose upon the country upon the passage of the Kansas Nebraska act—in that time which tried men's souls—Douglas of Illinois, first of all the band of statesmen, with splendid intrepidity, led the forlorn hope for the restoration of equal rights of the states.

The storm burst upon them in all its violence, and they stood with the steadiest courage of the 300 at Thermopylae, and braved its fury; they were left prostrate on the field of public affairs. We will lift them in our arms, and bind up their wounds, and amidst the clangor of the fight, will hail them leaders in the approaching contest.

Wright of Pensylvania moved a vote of thanks to President and officers of the Convention.

Adopted unanimously.

The Chairman of Committee on Organization then reported the names of the committee to appoint the Democratic General Committee, also resolutions naming Charleston as the place of the next Convention—time to be fixed by the National Committee; also that the State Convention to be held in New York, have authority to nominate a delegate from that State on the National Democratic Committee.

Judge Beardsley, of New York, asked the Convention to adopt all resolutions, except that one authorizing the State Committee in New York to appoint members to the National Committee, Leave New York to manage her own quarrels in her own way, and moved to strike out that resolution.

Ludlow, of New York, objected.

Mead, of Virginia, proposed that each delegation from New York appoint a member from the committee, and that the chairman of this Convention be authorized to draw lots to see which shall be the members.

The motion to draw lots was sustained.

Ludlow, on the part of the Softs, declined to go into the game of chance. There being, therefore, but one name in the hat—Augustus Schell—that gentleman was declared a member of the General Committee.

The usual vote of thanks of the Convention were tendered to Secretaries and citizens, and then the Convention adjourned sine die.

After adjournment, Mr. Ward, President of the Convention, was loudly called for, and made an eloquent speech in support of the action of the Convention.

New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., June 6.

Gov. Metcalf sent his annual Message to the Legislature to-day. One-third is devoted to national affairs—principally the slavery question. He denounces the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, Kansas outrages and the assault on Sumner, and attributes the uniform success of the slave power to their unanimity on that subject, and their constant threats of withdrawing from the Union as well as to the compactness of their party ties.

BOSTON, June 6.

Charles Hale, of this city, to-day received the following dispatch from the Hon. Anson Burlingame, in reply to a communication addressed to Mr. Sumner:

"Washington, June 6: To Chas. Hale, Boston. Mr. Sumner has just learned the recommendation of Gov. Gardner, that the commonwealth should assume the expenses of his illness, and he desires me to telegraph at once his hopes that the recommendation will not be pressed. In no event can he accept the allowance proposed, and Mr. Sumner adds: 'Whatever Massachusetts can give, let it all go to suffering Kansas.'"

Kansas and Nebraska.

Washington, June 5.

Senator Trumbull, with a view of the restoration of peace in Kansas, has prepared a bill annexing that territory to Nebraska.

From Kansas.

St. Louis, June 7.

Later intelligence from Kansas fails to confirm the accounts telegraphed yesterday. Instead of a battle between fifty Pro-Slavery men and one hundred and fifty Free State men, there was only a small fight between two parties, resulting in the death of two or three.

Vermont Republican State Convention.

MONTPELIER, June 6.

The Republican state Convention to appoint delegates at large to the National Convention was held at this place to-day, Hon. Levi. Underwood, of Burlington, late a Democrat of high standing, presiding. The following delegates were elected: Hon. Hiland Hall, Heman Carpenter, Erastus Freebanks, William Skinner, Lawrence Brainard and Levi Underwood.

Resolutions high toned and strongly denouncing the recent outrages in Kansas and Washington were unanimously adopted. Every county in the state, except one, was represented.

Nine cheers for Detroit.

DETROIT, June 6.

The people of Detroit have this day subscribed $25,000 in aid of the Free State cause in Kansas. They promise that the amount should be swelled to Fifty Thousand before they leave their work. As you may suppose, the excitement in this city is tremendous, and determination to act is everywhere expressed. So much for the nomination of Buchanan on a Pro-Slavery platform! Three cheers for Detroit!

Railroad Collision.

BUFFALO, June 6.

A collision took place last night at Pekin, at Niagara Falls Division of the Central Railroad. Mrs. M. F. Stevens, of Charleston, Mass., and Wm. Haynes, Fireman, were instantly killed. J. Hancock of Minnesota, had his leg broken; W. W. Woodward, of Burnet, Wis., had his leg broken and was badly burned. Horace Boyington of Springfield, Mass., was badly cut and legs both broken, and some eighteen others were seriously injured.

"PRO BONO PUBLICO."

W. LAIDLAW'S LAND AGENCY, office 230 East Water Street, 2 doors south of Walker House. I beg to return thanks to the public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon me during the time I have been engaged in the real estate business, and I do so with all the more pleasure on account of having received the most striking proofs of the manner in which my services are appreciated. Those who have patronized me know well, and will cheerfully testify to, the advantages which I offer. My principles are straight-forward, honorable and honest. I never require any one leaving the sale of property in my hands, to sign any written obligation of whatever nature or kind soever, binding him to pay a commission anyhow, but adopt the principle of "No sale no charge." The great increase of business has compelled me to enlarge my office, which, now being finished, is the most convenient and desirable in the city, and as the list of property I offer for sale is second to none, I would strongly recommend those who wish to be well served to make my office their head quarters. I have prepared a new map of the city, which exhibits at one glance, and in striking colors, all the best and most desirable property offered for sale. may17

The Greatest Chance Yet!

HEAVY TIMBER LANDS AND WATER POWER for sale or exchange for city property. Any man who has energy enough to undertake the management of a money making business, will here meet with an opportunity but rarely offered. I will sell 360 acres of heavy timber land 30 miles from this city, on the La Crosse Railroad, and near a Depot. There is a river running through the land with a fall of 18 feet, which if improved will constitute a water power of the very best description. The dam can be built at a very small cost.—The timber is all hard, and whoever undertakes to erect a saw mill on this property, to furnish hard lumber for this market, by availing himself said Railroad to haul it into the city, will secure to himself in a couple of years an independency. Lumber is a cash article, the demand is far exceeding the supply, and is increasing daily. I will sell this land at a bargain, or exchange for city property.

Famous Chance for a New Comer or an Old Settler!

VALUABLE FARM AND WATER POWER for sale. I will sell one of the best farms in the State, with a moderate cash payment, and on easy terms, or exchange same for city property.

Said farm is situated 20 miles from Milwaukee, on a Plank Road, and 3 miles from a depot on the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad, and comprises 360 acres, of which 252 acres are fenced, improved, and partly cropped. There are on said farm one frame house, one log house, one large frame barn and any number of sheds, &c., a fine orchard, beautiful springs and a running stream with a considerable fall, the dam is built and a large portion of timber collected on the spot for the erection of a mill, which in that neighborhood would prove a largely paying investment. The property is owned jointly by two parties who are desirous of dividing and settling up their joint interests, and for this reason offers a rare chance for an enterprising man to make a good strike.

The Shadow in the Valley.

There's a mossy, shady valley,
Where the waters wind and flow,
And the daisies sleep in winter,
'Neath a coverlid of snow;
And violets, blue-eyed violets,
Bloom in beauty in the spring;
And the sunbeams kiss the wavelets,
Till they seem to laugh and sing.

But in autumn, when the sunlight
Crowns the cedar-covered hill,
Shadows darken in the vally,
Shadows ominous and still;
And the yellow leaves like banners
Of an Elfin-host that's fled,
Ting'd with gold and royal purple,
Flutter sadly overhead.

And those shadows, gloomy shadows,
Like dim phantoms on the ground,
Stretch their dreamy length forever,
On a daisy-covered mound,
And I loved her, yes, I loved her,
But the angels loved her, too,
So she's sleeping in the valley,
'Neath the sky so bright and blue.

And no slab of pallid marble,
Rears its white and ghastly head,
Telling wanderers in the valley
Of the virtues of the dead.
But a lily is her tombstone,
And a dew drop, pure and bright,
Is the epitaph an angel
Wrote in the stillness of the night.

And I'm mournful, very mournful,
For my soul doth ever crave
For the fading of the shadows
From that little woodland grave.
And the memory of the loved one,
From my soul will never part;
And those shadows in the valley,
Dim the sunshine of my heart.

F. M. LANE'S
PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.
Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work has long been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will rapidly turn from the lightest and most opposite tints to the yellow color of the oil itself; the change being the more rapid as the paint is excluded from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a sufficiently long experience in its use, can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the purest white, resembling enamel or porcelain, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Hotels, &c., whilst in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other paints; it possesses superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

Also, Plain and Ornamental Painting, decoration of Private Dwellings, Churches, &c., Sign and Fancy Painting, &c. F. M. LANE, 22 Spring street,

—OF—
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304 West Water St.,

IS STILL IN FULL BLAST, WORKING DAY AND night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this, the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this

The Oldest Establishment in the State

the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

MEDICAL.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Buchu.

A CERTAIN, safe, and effectual remedy for Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure certain and permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands from the hands of merciless quacks, if not from premature graves. In cases of infections, the Compound Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing safe cures. It contains no narcotic, or other injurious drug, but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOSITION. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex, without hindrance from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them; DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS. With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail. This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the system, restoring the patient to a perfect state of health and purity. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a cure and preventive of any of the above ailments.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract of
SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence of life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed: whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unqualified satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and of Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations.—It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public and to the faculty that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla as usually made.

PRICES.

Fluid Extract Buchu, $1 per bottle or 6 for $5
" " Sarsaparilla " " " "

Certificates of cures and recommendations from distinguished professors and physicians will accompany each preparation. Prepared and sold by H. T. HELMBOLD, Practical and Analytical Chemist, No. 263 Chestnut st., near the Girard House, Philadelphia.

☞ To be had of Druggists and Dealers in every section of the United States and Canadas.

☞ All letters for the medicine directed to the proprietor receive immediate attention, and safe deliveries guaranteed. ja29d&wly

CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN INDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c., &c.

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their curative powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicates any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is echoing up daily from East, West, North and South, of wonderful cures they are preforming.

See what is said by those who have used these medicines:

The Rev. Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass., says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas;"

Capt. William Vail, of the steamer Granite State, says; "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores; is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate."

Dr. A. J. Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt., says, "a Scrofulous disease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev. August Bolles says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg."

J. Hatfield Frazer, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N. J., says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon. Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn., says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my legs, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy-eight years, but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once."

Elias Latham, Esq., of Orient, Long Island, N. Y., says, "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep without an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the island."

The Rev. J. S. Swan, of New London, says, I have used the Syrup and Cerate in my family for more than a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in a number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Prisbery, of Taunton, Mass. what the medicines will do; ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co., N. Y., what the syrup has done for him; ask G. F. & W. H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt.; ask P. L. Kent, of Chicago, Ill; ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass; ask Wm F. Kenbles, or Wm P. Benjamin, Esqs., of New London; ask Dr. H. M. Murdock, of Pulaski, N. Y; ask J. C Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y., who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate; ask Curtis Burrough, of Shelby, N. Y., who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum; ask Chas. Akin of Hume, N. Y., what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs; ask Winslow and Slafter, Merchants, Virgil, N. Y. what it will do for Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.
